Myanmar Council of Churches'

Holistic Child Development Project

Funded By : Compassion — Releasing children from poverty in Jesus' name

JOB VACANCY

The Holistic Child Development Project is a Christian ministry, dedicated to addressing the needs of children in poverty. We advocate for the poor, ministering to their needs and act on their behalf. We are currently seeking a person as detailed below : Mature Christian person, based on evangelical Christian values, with a vision and passion for children mission.

Program Trainer : 1 Position
Yangon Based

Job Summary

The trainer partners with program subject matter experts to support the partnership team by designing of effective learning processes, contextualizing content and delivering live learning events. Further, this incumbent may recommend and evaluate training vendors to provide, develop, and/or deliver training interventions. Normally working within his or her assigned country, the trainer assists with full learning cycle, including needs analysis, design & development, implementation and evaluation.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Required

- Has a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Bachelor's Degree in Accounting, Finance, Business Administration or related field.
- Delivers content in skill based training in a few subject areas. Schedules training facilities, logistics and transportation for self and others, and prepare instructional materials. Also assesses skills and knowledge of participants, and prepares training reports to provide to supervisor.
- Assist with presenting learning solutions including area such as child development, child protections, and health interventions. Combines platform delivery and a variety of facilitation skills to create meaningful and engaging group experiences. Participates in development and implementation activities contextualize content and reinforce key learning and asses effectiveness. Assesses and reports learner performance and training transfer.
- Use dynamic learning environments to meet specific learning objectives, guiding participants, generally in mall group settings, through structured learning and interaction, often adjusting style as necessary for culture and knowledge level.
- Delivers globally and locally developed content through understanding local context and ministry culture, training on different platforms/blended learning.
- Help ensure learning approach is contextualized with program staff to meet special learning needs of partners.
- Able to communicate in English and Burmese, any other ethnic language is a plus.

Please click the link to download Application Form and see full Job description :
Program Trainer : http://www.compassionth.com/?page_id=6350

If you are interested or need more information, Please contact us at apply4job.ci@gmail.com